Standard Rules in Voters Registration and Updating Adress

Standard Rules for Voters Registration

Usually, the Election Commission (EC) will publish a notice in the Gazette to call upor those who are qualified to vote and want to register as a voter for the Parliamentary ar State elections.

Those who are interested to register as a voter must have a copy of Form A that is four in the Schedule of the Elections (Registration of Electors) Regulation 200 ("Regulations").

Once you have filled up Form A, you can personally hand the form to one of the followir persons:

- 1. The Registrar of Electors
- 2. The Assistant Registrar of Electors

In some cases, if the Assistant Registration Officer will assist in the Voters Registration process where the newly registered voter will receive a copy of Form A.

01 Keep your eyes out for the notifications!

The notice will be in the form of a Media Stateme published on the EC's website (https://www.spr.gov.my and news platform such as Malaysiakini will report wh the notice is out.

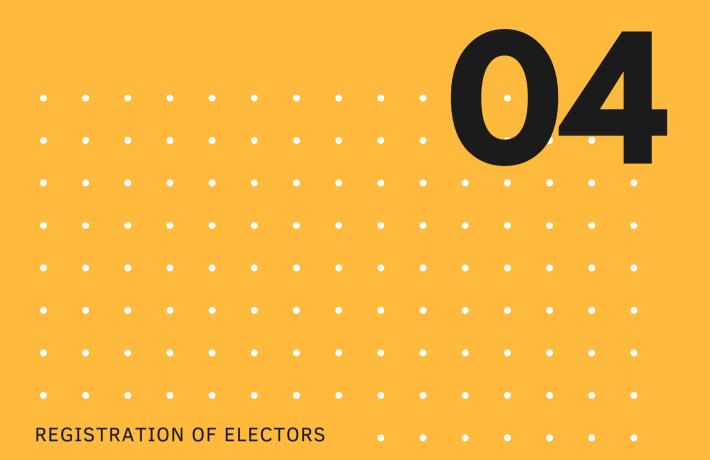

02 Post Office/Online Registration

It may convenient to register yourself as a voter at the Po Office in pre-pandemic times but you can also regis yourself as a voter online on the SPR website.

03 A New Application or A Transfer of Details

You are only allowed to submit a new registration or char your particulars once during the revision of the Supplementary Roll. [Reg 12(4)]

You should ensure that your name, address, NRIC and Date of Birth are correct. You should also ensure that you are registered according to your designated Polling District. These details will be published in SR when it is being revised.

Look out for any objections

Form D will be sent to you if there is a proper objection against you. The objector (the person making the objection) may object to the inclusion of your name in the Supplementary Roll. [Reg 15(8)]

Check your address!

The address on the draft SR will not be your address. You just need to make sure that your details is registered to the locality of where you are staying.

What Should You Do If There Is An Objection Against You?

Attend the Public Inquiry

Once you have received notice in Form E as to the reason why a Public Inquiry is being held, you should attend the inquiry to contest the objection.

Form E must be served to you

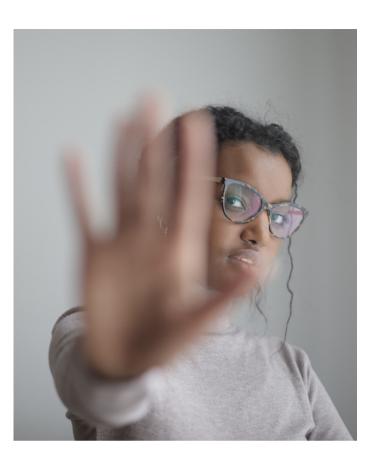

The Rules requires you to be notified of a public inquiry before going to the proceedings.

The burden of proof lies on the objector

The objector must provide sufficient evidence for the grounds of objection. This is regardless of the fact of whether you (being the person they are objecting against) attend the Public Inquiry.

[refer to Reg 17(5)]

Those who object without any reasonable cause will be punished with a fine up to RM 200. [Reg 18]
